

Descriptive vs inferential

Q1: A algebra teacher at the University of Bahrain, math college will only pass 5 students this semester because they were in a bad mood.

- a- Inferential statistics
- b- Descriptive statistics

Q2: 10% of college students are predicted to travel out of the country during mid-term break.

- a- Inferential statistics
- b- Descriptive statistics

Q3: A recent survey of 2000 adults having an MBA reported that the average salary is more than $65,000 a year.

- a- Inferential statistics
- b- Descriptive statistics

Q4: A prediction has been made that the chance that a person will be robbed in a certain city is 15%.

- a- Inferential statistics
- b- Descriptive statistics

Q5: From a past study, it was found that 56% of women are the primary investors in their households.

a- Inferential statistics

b- Descriptive statistics

Q6: From a past study from the American Dental Association it was found that 92% of Adults age 20-65 have suffered from at least one cavity.

a- Inferential statistics

b- Descriptive statistics

Q7: The average salary of all flight attendants in the year 1999 was $47,910.

a- Inferential statistics

b- Descriptive statistics

Q8: From a past study it was found that the APR of a certain credit card averaged 12.83%

a- Inferential statistics

b- Descriptive statistics

Q9: According to 2019, the number of confirmed cases in Manama the population of Bahrain, was 7,768.

a- Inferential statistics

b- Descriptive statistics